

GRAHAM MITCHELL BIOGRAPHYGRAHAM MITCHELL

Graham is a certified business coach with a track record of achieving real results by combining his passion for helping people with business experience to help grow South Africa's businesses beyond the need for their owners' time.

He works with business owners who have built a successful business but have reached a point where they are battling to grow their business further. Graham helps owners build strong teams and systems in their business to allow the business to keep growing beyond the need for the owners' time. Since 2009, he has coached over 50 businesses on how to grow their sales, manage their finances, and build successful teams, so that their businesses can make more money and require less of the owners' time.

Graham is recognized by ActionCOACH, the world's largest business coaching firm, as one of their Top 100 coaches in the world. A qualified Chartered Accountant, he spent seven years as a corporate finance advisor and two as Chief Operating Officer of a Pan-African property development company.
